What you can expect:

A varied role in human resources

Space for your own ideas and the opportunity to actively participate in projects

A beautiful office in an old building in the heart of Hamburg

A friendly, appreciative team that looks forward to your support

The chance to participate in innovative projects and contribute your own ideas

Free drinks and a family atmosphere

Your Profile:

Experience & personality: Several years of professional experience in human resources and an independent, structured, and reliable way of working

Professional competence: Confident use of MS Office and sound knowledge of labor law and human resources administration

Languages: Good written and spoken German, basic English skills required

DATEV: Practical experience in payroll accounting with the DATEV software solution is a plus

Financial understanding: Basic knowledge of financial accounting is a plus, but not a must

Your tasks with us:

HR administration: Drafting and maintaining employment contracts, time recording, personnel planning, and processing terminations and warnings

Payroll accounting: Performing and supervising payroll accounting — with practical experience in DATEV/LODAS

Financial accounting: Basic knowledge of financial accounting is desirable, but not a prerequisite

Reporting & evaluations: Creation of HR-related evaluations and support with internal reports

Project work: Participation in internal HR projects and support with travel planning and general organizational tasks
